

Special Education Services:

Special Education programs and services are provided to address the academic, social-emotional, physical and management needs of students with disabilities in the least restrictive environment. Programs for students in need of specially designed instruction; accommodations and related-services to access instruction are available with no cost to parents. Our goal is to provide our students with the supports and services needed to foster success in the general education setting.

Director of Special Education Services

Denise Otteni-Jones

denise.otteni-jones@careerprepschool.com